PROJECT TEAM PEER EVALUATION FORM

Evaluation of the other members of your team is important. Please fill out the bottom of this form to help us evaluate your team's teamwork. Do NOT share or discuss your evaluations with other team members.

Each member of the team has 100 points to allocate among all team members. Allocation should be based upon your opinion regarding the relative contribution of each team member -- including yourself --to the overall success of the project. Some possible evaluation dimensions are listed below.

Reliability (can be counted on to do assigned part of work)
On time (arrives on time; is present at all planned activities)
Self-motivation (works hard on expected tasks)
Respect for others (listens, speaks in turn)
Quality of assigned work (completes it correctly and to the team's satisfaction)
Decision making (makes appropriate choices; participates in planning activities; takes responsibility)
Communication (keeps team informed of progress and problems)
Teamwork (contributes, participates, shares ideas, helps)
Employability (would you consider hiring this person?)
